

So glad to have been able to come back in the winter & I can't think of anywhere I'd rather be; to re-discover my skiing prowess.

Thanks so much, Ross, & wishing you lots of love, love & laughter in Charet Cymru ♡ Be xx

Ross, you and your mountain high crew have got this sorted!!
You are so clever, I've never been to such a warm, welcoming and well-equipped chalet! Thank you for this opportunity for early-season skiing, I've never known snow like it!
All the best for your early season, you will be just great!
Can't wait for Feb - see you then!
lots of love Alex xx

Your place is fabulous! Thank you so much for a great weekend. Absolutely loved hanging out in our room, pretending to work but actually napping! great time! You have a wonderful place here. Best of luck with everything!

C-dawg, I LOVE IT!

How did you pull it off??

I always thought I'd make my millions & have my luxury lifestyle before you!

I am delighted to be here on guinea pig duty. I know this is just yet another brilliant adventure ^{along the way that} I'm happy to be involved in. If you lose that old faithful Westbeach jacket, you know for a fact that I'm painting another orange triangle on the back.... we need to be able to find you when I lose you in the powder  Seriously dude, I hope that it's not all work & no play when I come back. You'll need all your ^{spare} APiSte time to keep up with me!!!!

Can't wait for the bluebirds with you!

All the best for Mountain Highs,

Keith

P.S. 1st gear, low revs, easy on the accelerator, ... & you're home & dry!

P.P.S. Save me a space in the hot tub!

P.P.P.S. Don't think this is the last time I'll be writing shite in this book! I'll be back for more..... KS..
