Excellent last minute booking and Ross was very helpful sorting it. Chalet slaves lovely and also very helpful. Shame about the weather but the sofas are very comfortable in front of the fire. Chris & Tim who kindly collected a rubbish skier early, and helped me load when my car got stuck! P.S. don't forget Dave

Ross + Team,

Brilliant week away from the bright lights of Edinburgh.
Fantastic snow and great weather.

- Absolutely cracking two weeks, thanks guys! Craig age (25)

Thanks for an amazing + v. eventful 2 weeks! You guys have really gone out of your way to make sure we have all had a v. memorable time..... not sure I'll ever have such a fun New Year for a long long time. Accomodating, feeding + transporting 20ish people successfully for a fortnight is no simple task. Good luck for the rest of the season FeeBee X age (47)

What a fortnight! It took us so long to find a chalet which would allow a swingers party of twenty. Everybody is truly knackered and we all know each other so much better now. It was very good of you Ross for stepping in on the leathers and pool ball night, I know it is not what you are usually into but you seemed to enjoy yourself. But thanks very much for such a great effort and good luck for the rest of the season hope you get loads of snow and will definitely be in touch
Thanks again Mike age (26) You guys are ACE!!

I don't think you actually own this chalet - if you did, there's absolutely no way all the shenanigans of the previous fortnight would have been allowed. I feel intensely sorry for the real proprietor when he returns next week. Seriously though - we've had so much fun and contracted more illnesses than I could have possibly imagined. They say the age of free sex has passed, but they are wrong. They say people grow out of binge drinking, but they are wrong. They thought that nobody could look good in gold pants, but they were also wrong with that one
Cheers Ross, Katie & Jimmer - Lots of love, (26)

Double thumbs up to Ross, Emmor & Katie for surviving 2 full weeks of club 18-30 - well done guys...! You coped with your v. poor time keeping, the emergency call outs and did a sterling job of jining in the drinking - Ross saving Chris from the Russian mafia following the hardstand incident was well beyond the call of duty...! Thanks for a fab holiday - you may regret looking after us so well as there is high chance we'll be back...! Cheers Fi S (age 30)

Snow, sun & wine. What more needs to be said.
Cheers Ross, Katy & Emmyr, you've been awesome.

Ross, Emyr & Katy.

Difficult to express the gratitude we all owe you for making the two weeks here an unforgettable holiday. Thank you so much for everything; the banter, the hard work looking after us all, getting involved at New Year, your patience!!

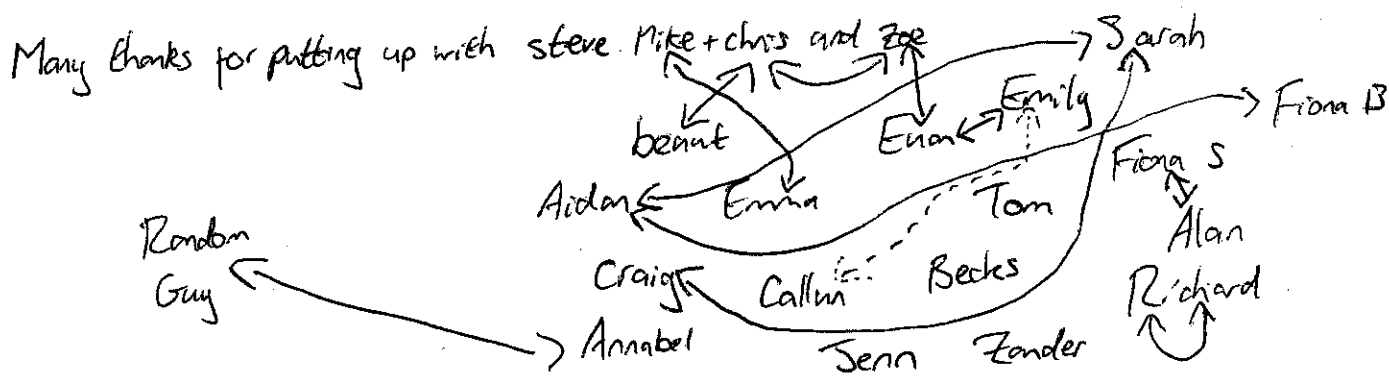

To sum it all up... "Everything is ok!!! ... Ross is here..." 😊
Take it easy. Love. xxx. (30)

It's been emotional!...
Once again many thanks for the fun times. Special mention to Sven & Leon for touching me up!! Ross you loved it! (breasts). Cracking start to 2009, Kate & Emyr - legends for putting up with us.
Until next time... Sarah xxx. (AGE NOT DISCLOSED!) (4 AM.)

Ross, Emyr & Katie,

Thanks for everything you've done for us over 2 weeks of carnage!! Have had superb time out here in Cham Sud & appreciate all the little extra things you've done for us all. Hope we can all come back again soon. Good luck for rest of 2009. All the best Annabellaaaaah!!
xxxx. (28)

Again a huge thank you for everything you have done for all of us, especially myself. You guys made this holiday for me. Looking after us as if we all were very small children without any adults. I will definitely be coming back here with a younger and more wild crowd. Lots of love Chris x

Hopefully be back soon for more of the same very soon was great to have you guys part of the group. Lots of love. Richard x

Dear Ross, Ewen, Katy,

Thank you so much for making the past week so enjoyable and for enabling me to have 2 great achievements - firstly + probably the most easy - completing the Valley Blanche - secondly + definitely an awesome challenge - surviving a week of carnage! Thanks again for making it such a fab holiday!

With love, JR. (26)

So glad to have been able to come back in the winter & I can't think of anywhere I'd rather be; to re-discover my skiing prowess.

Thanks so much, Ross, & wishing you lots of love, love + laughter in Charet Cymru  & Zéxx

Thanks for another lovely stay with mountain highs! Great pre season skiing - slopes to ourselves. Thanks again for looking after us so well. Chucky cheers for being top ski guide, and letting me beat you at singstar! L! Hope you have a great season and hope to see you again soon out here! Joxxx

Wow! What a warm & friendly atmosphere. V. child friendly (Well, you're just a kid at heart yourself, Ross!) Excellent ski guide! Thanks for sharing one of the best Christmas days we've ever had. Fantastic home from home holiday. Well done Kate & Em for accomodating 2 kids with celiac disease & keeping us all full. Trust in your ability to cook and you'll go far!! Ross, you and your mountain high crew have got this sorted!!
You are so clever, I've never been to such a warm, welcoming and well-equipped chalet! Thank you for this opportunity for early-season skiing, I've never known snow like it!
All the best for your early season, you will be just great!
Can't wait for Feb - see you then!

Your place is fabulous! Thank you so much for a great weekend. Absolutely loved hanging out in our room, pretending to work but actually napping! Great time! You have a wonderful place here. Best of luck with everything!

C-dawg, I LOVE IT!

How did you pull it off??

I always thought I'd make my millions & have my luxury lifestyle before you!

I am delighted to be here on guinea pig duty. I know this is just yet another brilliant adventure ^{along the way that} I'm happy to be involved in. If you lose that old faithful Westbeach jacket, you know for a fact that I'm painting another orange triangle on the back..... we need to be able to find you when I lose you in the powder  Seriously dude, I hope that it's not all ^{spare} work & no play when I come back. You'll need all your ^{spare} APiSte time to keep up with me!!!!

Can't wait for the bluebirds with you!

All the best for Mountain Highs,

Keith

P.S. 1st gear, low revs, easy on the accelerator, ... & you're home & dry!

P.P.S. Save me a space in the hot tub!

P.P.P.S. Don't think this is the last time I'll be writing shite in this book! I'll be back for more..... KS..
